

Disability Research Consortium Annual Meeting

Washington, DC

 AUGUST 2, 2017

AUGUST 2, 2017

8:00 – 8:30 Coffee and Registration

8:30 – 8:45 Welcoming Remarks

- David Stapleton, Mathematica
- John Phillips, Associate Commissioner, Office of Research, Evaluation and Statistics, Social Security Administration

8:45 – 10:15 Workers' Compensation and Short-Term Disability

Moderator: David Stapleton, Mathematica

- The Effect of Unconditional Cash Transfers on Return to Work

Kathleen Mullen, RAND Corporation; Stephanie Rennane*, RAND Corporation

Discussant: Yonatan Ben-Shalom, Mathematica

- Early Identification of Short-Term Disability Claimants Who Exhaust Their Benefits and Transfer to Long-Term Disability Insurance

Kara Contreary*, Mathematica; Yonatan Ben-Shalom, Mathematica; Brian Gifford, Integrated Benefits Institute

Discussant: Phil Armour, RAND Corporation

- The Impact of Temporary Disability Insurance in Rhode Island on Maternal and Newborn Outcomes

Justine Hastings*, Brown University and Rhode Island Innovative Policy Lab (RIIPL); Zakary Campbell, RIIPL; Ian Chin, RIIPL; Eric Chyn, University of Virginia and RIIPL

Discussant: David Mann, Mathematica

10:15 – 10:30 Break

10:30 – 12:00 Effects of the Economy and State Policy on SSDI Outcomes

Moderator: David Autor, MIT and NBER

- Disability Insurance and the Great Recession

Nicole Maestas, Harvard University and NBER; Kathleen Mullen*, RAND Corporation; Alexander Strand, Social Security Administration

Discussant: David Stapleton, Mathematica

- Controlled Substance Restrictions and Applications for Disability Insurance

David Cutler, Harvard University and NBER; Ellen Meara, Dartmouth College and NBER; Susan Stewart*, NBER

Discussant: Stefan Staubli, University of Calgary

- Long-Term Follow-Up of the Texas Demonstration to Maintain Independence and Employment

Judith Cook*, The University of Illinois at Chicago; Jane Burke-Miller, The University of Illinois at Chicago; Thomas Bohman, The University of Texas at Austin

Discussant: Crystal Blyler, Mathematica

12:00 – 1:15 Lunch

- Income and Longevity: Implications for Disability and Retirement Programs

David Cutler, Harvard University and NBER

1:15 – 2:45 Non-SSA Program Interactions

Moderator: Gina Livermore, Mathematica

- Contemporaneous and Long-Term Effects of CHIP Eligibility Expansions on SSI Enrollment

Sean Orzol, Mathematica; Lindsey Leininger, Mathematica; Michael Levere*, Mathematica; Nancy Early, Social Security Administration

Discussant: Steven Hill, Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality

- Long-Term Outcomes for Transition-Age Youth with Mental Health Conditions Who Receive Postsecondary Education Support

Priyanka Anand*, Mathematica; Todd Honeycutt, Mathematica

Discussant: Manasi Deshpande, University of Chicago and NBER

- The Impact of Medicare Part D on Social Security Disability Insurance Beneficiaries

Amitabh Chandra, Harvard and NBER; Seth Seabury*, University of Southern California and NBER

Discussant: Gal Wettstein, Retirement Research Center at Boston College

2:45 – 3:00 Break

3:00 – 4:30 Federal Disability Policy

Moderator: Nicole Maestas, Harvard University and NBER

- Work-Related Overpayments of Social Security Disability Insurance Beneficiaries: Prevalence and Descriptive Statistics

Denise Hoffman*, Mathematica; Ben Fischer, Mathematica; John Jones, Social Security Administration

Discussant: John Kregel, VCU

Long-Term Follow-Up of the Mental Health Treatment Study

Julia Baller*, Mathematica; Crystal Blyler, Mathematica; Gary Bond, Westat; Tom Hale, Social Security Administration

Discussant: Kim Mueser, Boston University

- Medical Recovery After Bariatric Surgery

Lauren Hersch Nicholas*, Johns Hopkins University; Justin Dimick, University of Michigan

Discussant: Jody Schimmel Hyde, Mathematica

4:30 – 4:35 Closing Remarks

- David Stapleton, Mathematica